

Emerging
Artists 2022

WEDNESDAY LUNCHTIME TIME CONCERT - 1.15PM
St. Jude's Church Bowral - first Wednesday of the month

August 3rd
Annie Ma ~ Piano Music from Spain
E. Granados | I. Albeniz | M. de Falla

Annie is a first class honours graduate from Sydney Conservatorium. She has appeared in the Weill Recital Hall at Carnegie Hall New York, the Sydney Opera House and has performed in New Zealand and Germany.

September 7th
Beatrice Columbis & Laura McDonald
Violin Recital: J.S. Bach | J. Brahms | M. Ravel

Beatrice won the 2021 Melbourne Bach Competition, and in 2022 she received the Henderson Travelling Scholarship for her string quartet "Asta" from the Sydney Conservatorium of Music. They will travel in July to study in Finland, Austria and Germany.. She will be joined by her mother, Laura McDonald, one of Sydney's leading pianists.

October 5th
Elsa Li & Sophia Bae ~ Piano Music from the Heart

Multi-international award winning young pianists will delight and inspire you with repertoire for solo and duo piano. In 2022 Elsa was awarded the Kathleen Holmes McCrea Pianoforte scholarship and Sophia the Victor Cromack and Melba Harris Cromack Memorial Scholarship to attend the Rising Stars program at the Sydney Conservatorium of Music.

November 2nd
Heesoo Kim ~ Cello Across the Centuries
LV. Beethoven | P.I. Tchaikovsky | G. Casad 

Heesoo is a South Korean - Australian cellist from the Gold Coast. Heesoo left to study cello in Paris at 15, after being accepted at Ecole Normale de Musique de Paris as the youngest student. She now attends the Sydney Conservatorium while continuing her studies in Paris. She has performed extensively in Europe.

December 7th
Alec Watts, Michael Dominis & Jack Quinn
Jazz Trio and new compositions by Alec Watts

Hear the next generation of Jazz musicians, this trio brings a sensitive spirit and warm attitude to their music. The program includes traditional jazz improvisation and new compositions by Alec Watts, inspired by his desire to learn about and from indigenous culture.